

4. Program Outcomes

Complete one logic model for each funded program, providing data results for last year and the current year. (Insert, delete or merge cells/rows as needed. This page is scaled to fit legal-size paper).

Program Logic Model

Program Name: Domestic Violence Project

Activities	Outputs	Key Outcomes	Indicators of Outcomes	Measurement Methods	Results – Prior Year (Jan-Dec 2011)	Results – Most Recent Year (Jan-Dec 2012)
Provide legal advice and educational information	Individualized legal advice on a specific client matter and written client educational materials	Clients know how the legal system can help assure safety and basic needs	# of client information pamphlets or consultations provided	Data entry documenting advice and information provided to client	Staff provided advice or brief assistance to 61 clients. Staff distributed 6 client education pamphlets.	Staff provided advice or brief assistance to 38 clients. Staff distributed 4 client education pamphlets.
Identify and meet special needs in the community	Client education materials translated into 5 languages. Use of interpreters	Clients who do not speak English or who are deaf are able to receive assistance and protect themselves.	# of translated client education materials distributed and viewed online # of interpreters used	# education materials distributed website statistics # of interpreters used	Pine Tree translated PFA Court Forms into 4 languages: Arabic, French, Spanish, and Somali Foreign language materials were viewed 425 times online 17 clients spoke languages other than English and required interpreters	Pine Tree translated the inter-agency referral form and release used by partner agencies into Spanish Foreign language materials were viewed 496 times online 15 clients spoke languages other than English and required interpreters
Provide legal representation in Court proceedings	Protection from abuse or other court action achieved Protection from abuse order includes specific	Victims and their families empowered to live in violence free homes with basic needs addressed.	# of protection from abuse or protection from harassment orders granted. #s of orders with specific provisions	Data entry documenting outcomes from representation	Staff provided full representation to 247 clients. We received favorable decisions in 242 cases (98%). 165 victims received	Staff provided full representation to 218 clients. We received favorable decisions in 217 cases (99%). 146 victims received

	provisions related to the wellbeing of the victim		related to safety, basic needs or financial stability of the victim		protection from abuse/harassment orders 91 victims were able to remain safely in their homes 94 victims received additional legal assistance to help stabilize their family situation, such as assistance with a divorce or custody case 29 victims received financial responsibility orders including spousal support, child support, and damages. The total annual compensation received by victims as a result of United Way funding is $16,532.	protection from abuse/harassment orders 83 victims were able to remain safely in their homes 77 victims received additional legal assistance to help stabilize their family situation, such as assistance with a divorce or custody case 21 victims received financial responsibility orders including spousal support, child support, and damages. The total annual compensation received by victims as a result of United Way funding is $213,402.
Provide legal representation in Court proceedings.	Protection from abuse order includes specific provisions related to the wellbeing of the child	Children exposed to violence are protected from further violence in their homes.	# of PFA orders granted for households with children # of PFA orders that include supervised visits/exchanges	Data entry documenting outcomes from representation	Pine Tree represented 72 victims in PFA/PFH cases in which the child was protected by the order 25 victims received orders for supervised exchanges/visit for their children	Pine Tree represented 72 victims in PFA/PFH cases in which the child was protected by the order 24 victims received orders for supervised exchanges/visit for their children