

Program Outcomes Logic Model Worksheet

Program Name: Civil Legal Services (Legal Aid)

Inputs (resources dedicated to or consumed by the program) Activities (what the program does with inputs to fulfill its mission) Outputs (the direct products of program operation)			Outcomes (benefits or changes for individuals or populations during or after participating in program activities) Indicators (specific items of data that are tracked to measure how well a program is achieving an outcome)
Inputs	Activities	Outputs	Initial Outcomes	Intermediate Outcomes	Longer-term Outcomes

Staff	Eligibility assessment
Attorneys	Intake interviews
Volunteer coordinator	Assessment of legal merit & resource availability
Volunteer Attorneys	Referrals to other agencies and self-help materials
Support staff	Legal advice
Law students/ volunteer	Investigation /fact finding
Computers	Legal research
Technology	Discussion of strategies
Research tools	Drafting pleadings and motions
Law library	Negotiations
Office space and equipment	Motion practice
Federal regulations	Preparation of witnesses
Funding	Representation in hearings or trials
Case law and statutes	Preparation of legal memoranda or briefs
Self-help and client education materials	Preparation of other legal documents
Referrals	Recruitment of volunteer attorneys
Client and community ideas and requests	Referral of cases to volunteer attorneys and follow-up on such cases
Training of staff	Interagency activities
Collaborative partners	Record-keeping
	Outreach

